The UNL ECSE Alumni listserv A communication network for the 21st century

Use your e-mail to communicate with others interested and/or employed in ECSE programs across the state.
Write one message that will go out to many receivers on the List.
Hit "Reply" and everyone on the list will get your message!

Moderator: Dr. Chris Marvin

This listserv will provide you opportunity to:

- Discourse with past classmates and current ECSE students
- Discuss implementation of family-centered services
- Share case studies and seek input on challenging situations related to serving infants or preschool children with disabilities
- Ask about new or better assessment practices
- Seek resources about particular syndromes or conditions
- Review summaries of recent journal articles
- Learn about upcoming UNL courses or events related to ECSE
- Brag a little! Share your successful day!

Rules for Listserv Participation:

- * Participants must be recognized past or current students in one of the following UNL courses: SpEd 860, 861, 862, 863, 960
- * No advertising for sale of products or services
- * No flaming, spamming or foul language
- * Sharing of information about children/families must be kept confidential (no names, locales or other identifying information)
- * Questions, comments, topics must be pertinent to ECSE services/populations
- * No one is obligated to respond to any posting
- * Members can request to be unsubscribed at any time
