

Student Application for Lincoln Friends of Foreign Students

Lincoln Friends of Foreign Students, the University's hosting program, is your opportunity to observe and participate in American life. Although you do not live with your Lincoln Friend, you will participate in activities and outing as well as share your culture and customs with Americans. Assignments are made for the first year of your study at the University. Because of the large number of applications, it may take some time to meet all requests. Please return this completed form to International Affairs – 420 University Terrace.
