The UNL Orchestra Violin Seating Excerpts
Spring 2016

Greetings violin students! Here are the violin excerpts for the UNL orchestra seating auditions. Dr. White has scheduled the auditions for Sunday, January 10 starting at 1:30 p.m. in Room #119. An audition sign-up sheet will be available for specific times from Dr. White. A printed copy of these excerpts will also be available on my studio board before the auditions if you need to make a second copy. Remember to listen to a couple of recordings (or more) of these works as you are preparing them! Good luck, and have a safe and relaxing break! I look forward to seeing and hearing all of you in the spring!

Happy Holidays!
