Are you receiving any University-related financial assistance? (Please specify) Please note, you may not accept Project Re-Entry funds and a graduate assistantship; however you may have received a Non-resident Tuition Fellowship (e.g., EDGREN) to reduce the amount of your out-of-state tuition and still be considered for Project Re-Entry funds.

Please attach a one-page description of your interest in the specialized program of studies provided through Project Re-Entry. Include information describing your interest in working with general and special education teachers to support the school reintegration of children and youth with traumatic brain injuries.

I understand that I must agree to seek and accept employment in schools or approved agencies that contract to provide special education services for public schools for two years for each year of project support or repay all moneys received from the project within one year of graduation. This is a requirement of the funding agency (U.S. Office of Education, Office of Special Education Programs). Graduates are not required to remain in the state of Nebraska but are bound by the obligations listed above in terms of public school service obligation.
