

Dennis Jenkins

123 S. 16th St. • Lincoln, NE 68502 • (402) 555-2394 • dennis@email.net

Education: University of Nebraska–Lincoln

Bachelor of Arts in Sociology

Anticipated date of graduation: May 2006

Cumulative GPA: 3.82, Major GPA: 4.0

Honors: University of Nebraska–Lincoln Regents Scholarship Recipient

Mortar Board Notable - Spring 2005

Phi Eta Sigma Freshman Honorary

Dean's List-all semesters

Honors Program Member

Minority Opportunities in School Transformation Internship Participant

- Selected for one of two department wide positions

Goal of Program: To examine the history of the discipline of sociology, social class and poverty issues in the study of race and ethnicity, gender based inequality, and family diversity

Format: Focus of research techniques to enhance computer and library research skills culminating in the completion of a research proposal

Activities: Sociology Club, University of Nebraska–Lincoln, December 2002-Present

- President Elect, Current
- Recruitment Committee Chairman, 2003/2004

Student Activities Council, September 2003 - Present

- Membership Committee, January 2004 - Present
- Search Committee for Professional Advisor, Fall 2003

University of Nebraska Ambassadors, August 2002 - Present

Experience: Resident Assistant, Selleck Residence Hall; August 2003-Present

- Assist students with daily living needs in residence halls
- Counsel and advise students; mediate conflict
- Facilitate floor government and organize floor meetings
- Plan social and educational programs
- Enforce campus policies

Peer Advisor, Academic Advising; November 2002-Present

- Selected for one of eight college-wide positions
- Consult with students on requirements for the college
- Evaluate transfer credit
- Participate as an academic advisor for New Student Enrollment