Position/Department _____

The purpose of this award is to recognize outstanding efforts to create an inclusive, respectful, and safe climate for members of the gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender (GLBT) community at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. These efforts may be by an individual or a student organization within the institution. Previous nominees may be re-nominated. The award recipient must demonstrate an on-going commitment to the GLBT community. Examples of such efforts might include:

- Advocating for GLBT individuals, groups, and issues in UNL campus settings;
- Committed to creating projects that promote greater awareness of GLBT issues, including actual and potential oppression, within the University;
- Actively involved in designing activities and programs that convey an active commitment to diversity and inclusion, personal safety and mutual respect for, and among, GLBT students, faculty, and staff.

Nomination Packet:

Students, staff and faculty are invited to submit nominations. In your nomination letter, please describe specific examples of the nominee's outstanding contributions to the GLBT community at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. These examples and stories are essential and may be cited at the award presentation ceremony.

Please include in the Nomination Packet:

- 1) this form.
- 2) the nomination letter.
- 3) two additional letters of support.

Please attach all supporting documentation to this nomination form and submit to:
