The Christian Lieding Scholarship and Fellowship Program in Support of Academic Exchanges and Study Abroad

Purpose

The Christian Lieding Scholarship and Fellowship Program is intended to encourage academic/educational exchanges between the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and foreign educational institutions with special emphasis on Germany and German-speaking universities. Scholarships and fellowships will be available to assist UNL students to participate in study abroad programs and to assist foreign students who wish to enroll in the curricula of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

Funding Levels

The amount of the award is correlated with the length of the academic program, financial need, the quality of the application, and availability of resources.

Short-term program (less than a full semester): Up to $2,000.

Full semester program: Up to $3,000.

Year-long program (support for two academic semesters): Up to $5,000.
