

The 2003 Henry and Gretl Wald Lecture
Sponsored by the Harris Center for Judaic Studies

Vision and Revision: the Bible and Contemporary Midrash

Alicia Ostriker

Rutgers University

Twice nominated for a National Book Award, Alicia Ostriker is author of nine volumes of poetry, most recently The Little Space: Poems Selected and New, 1968–1998. She has also published two books on the Bible, Feminist Revision and the Bible and The Nakedness of the Fathers: Biblical Visions and Revisions. Ostriker has received awards from the National Endowment for the Arts, the Poetry Society of America, the Rockefeller Foundation, and the Guggenheim Foundation. She teaches English and creative writing at Rutgers University in New Jersey.

Thursday, April 3, 2003

7:30 p.m.

(Reception to follow)

The Great Plains Art Collection in the Christlieb Gallery
1155 Q Street • Lincoln, NE

UNIVERSITY OF Nebraska
Lincoln