

Borges and the Kabbalah:

A Pre-text to the Core

Thursday,
November 29, 2007

7:00 p.m.

Great Plains Art Museum
1155 Q street

Dr. Saul Sosnowski

Professor and Associate Provost for International Affairs
Editor, Hispanica
Office of International Programs
122 Holzapfel Hall
University of Maryland
College Park, MD 20742-USA

Jorge Luis Borges, 1899-1986, was a world-renowned Argentinian writer. In many of his works, notably the story "The Aleph," he displayed a strong interest in Judaism and especially the form of Jewish mysticism called Kabbalah. Professor Sosnowski will explore Borges' work under this aspect.

This event is sponsored by the Harris Center for Judaic Studies and the Department of Modern Languages and is free and open to the public.