

The Latino Research Initiative at the University of Nebraska – Lincoln, with the support of the Montgomery Lectureship Award, Presents

A Symposium on Youth Mentoring

Wednesday, March 31, 2004
Nebraska Union, UNL City Campus, 14th & “R” Street

Keynote speakers:

Dr. Michael J. Karcher, University of Texas-San Antonio

Dr. Bernadette Sanchez, DePaul University

Please join us on March 31st as we bring together national and local experts to share the latest information on effective mentoring programs for youth. The program will consist of keynote talks and breakout sessions. The day’s activities will begin with check-in at 8:30 a.m., lunch on your own from 11:30 a.m. – 12:45 p.m., breakout sessions from 12:45 p.m. – 2:00 p.m., and adjournment at 3:00 p.m.

There is no charge to attend the symposium, yet to assist us in our planning, we ask that you complete and return the attached registration form by March 17, 2004.

For more information, contact Liz at: via email at ecarranza-rodriquez1@unl.edu

Youth Mentoring Symposium Registration Form

Registration Deadline: March 17, 2004

Name _____

Phone _____

Address _____

Organization _____

Email Address _____

Break-Out Session Sign Up

Please sign up by indicating your 1, 2, and 3 choice of sessions .

- In their own words: A conversation with LAMP mentees and mentors
- Mentoring in school-based settings
- Involving families in mentoring programs
- Training and supporting mentors
- Creating effective mentor-mentee matches
- Cultural considerations in mentoring
- Evaluating mentoring programs

Please return before March 17, 2004 to:

University of Nebraska-Lincoln
Institute for Ethnic Studies
420 University Terrace
Lincoln, NE 68588-0685