NCORE Student Application

29th Annual Conference on Race & Ethnicity in American Higher Education
San Francisco, CA
May 31 – June 4, 2016

The Office of Academic Success and Intercultural Services (OASIS) is excited to be able to offer the opportunity for our students to attend the 2015 National Conference on Race & Ethnicity in American Higher Education (NCORE)!

The University of Nebraska and OASIS has pledged to cover the cost of five UNL student registrations, transportation to the conference, and accommodation expenses.

It is with great hope that you will consider submitting an application for the opportunity to attend this conference that will provide you with incredible speakers, networking opportunities, and knowledge that you will be able to bring back and share with the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and OASIS.

For more information about the conference, please visit www.ncore.ou.edu.

Applicant Eligibility:

- Interest in promoting campus inclusivity, specifically regarding race and ethnicity.
- Cumulative GPA of 2.5 or better.
- Currently enrolled at UNL as an undergraduate student.
- Expected graduation date of December 2016 or later.
- Active involvement on campus demonstrated through Recognized Student Organization membership (MASA, APU, MESU, AWA, UNITE, etc.), positions on advisory boards, or utilizing OASIS programs and events.
- Commitment to attend three pre-departure orientation sessions (dates to be determined).
- Must be available to attend NCORE (including travel dates on May 30th and June 5th) and fully participate in all activities. This includes session attendance, daily OASIS group meetings, individual reflections, and an off-site cultural activity.
- Attend regular meetings during the Fall 2016 semester and develop an individual or group project and presentation to share with campus.
- Must participate in one of the following during the 2016-17 academic year: OASIS Leadership Program, OASIS Mentor Program, and/or OASIS Student Advisory Board.
Completed application must be submitted by noon on Monday, February 29\textsuperscript{th}. Submit your application (hard copy stapled together or digital format) to Sylvia Hall – shall14@unl.edu. Late applications will not be considered.

Application Requirements

- Submit:
  - Student Information Page
  - Résumé
  - Essays

Other Information:

- If selected, you must pay a $150 fee by April 1\textsuperscript{st}. The fee will be used to cover the costs associated with this experience (roughly $1,500/student), as well as demonstrate your commitment to NCORE and OASIS goals. Please note that if cannot attend, the $100 is non-refundable.

- Selected students will be responsible for covering their own meals (note: NCORE occasionally provides breakfast but this should not be relied on) and other incidental costs (including transportation around San Francisco), in addition to the above fee.

- All students attending NCORE (whether sponsored by OASIS or not) are expected to represent the University, and conduct themselves in a lawful manner and in compliance with the University’s standards for student conduct (see University of Nebraska – Lincoln Student Code of Conduct at http://stuafs.unl.edu/ja/code).

- Transportation will be via flight. Selected students will be responsible arranging their own transportation to and from Omaha Eppley Airport on May 30\textsuperscript{th} and June 5\textsuperscript{th}.

- If selected, students must write a thank you note to the University offices that helped support the trip.
