Picking Up the Pieces: When Is a War Really “Over” in Women’s Lives

Cynthia Enloe, Ph.D.

Professor of International Development and Women’s Studies, Clark University

Cynthia Enloe focuses on how women’s emotional and physical labor has been used to support governments’ war-waging policies. She is also the author of nine books, including Bananas, Beaches and Bases: Making Feminist Sense of International Politics, Globalization and Militarism: Feminists Make the Link, and The Curious Feminist: Searching for Women in the New Age of Empire.
