The hearing was held at the City Campus Nebraska Union at University of Nebraska–Lincoln.

Bender opened and called the hearing to order at 1:00 p.m. Bender stated at this point it appeared that no one was present to testify on these proposed reductions - at least in opposition to them. He noted Dean David Manderscheid, College of Arts and Sciences, was present and asked APC membership if there were any questions for him.

Manderscheid noted the fact that no one is testifying hopefully is a reflection of what this allowed us the opportunity to do. It allows us to go back to the departments involved and, while no one likes to come up with a budget cut, over a period of time during the fall semester, we came to an understanding that these were reasonable steps to take.

A question and answer then ensued.

Bender asked if there were any other questions for Dean Manderscheid or any other testimony and there were none. Bender thanked Dean Manderscheid for his time and attendance. He mentioned the APC would have a deliberation meeting on these proposed items on Monday.

The hearing adjourned at 1:18 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Michelle (Shelly) Green
APC Coordinator
