ARMY ROTC

The Best Leadership Course in America

Army Strong

Dear Scholarship Applicant:

This application represents one of the greatest opportunities available to young men and women in the United States today. The U.S. Army Reserve Officers' Training Corps is the best leadership course in America, and service as a commissioned Army officer provides the best leadership experience in the world.

We are looking for scholars, athletes, and leaders like you who have demonstrated talents in high school and are ready to take on a real challenge. Our programs give you the opportunity to learn excellent leadership and management skills, and to participate in some of the finest training available. Upon graduation and commissioning as an Army officer, you'll continue to hone your leadership skills either on active duty or in a reserve component (U.S. Army Reserve or Army National Guard).

Alumni of Army ROTC programs have made significant contributions in all walks of life. Sam Walton (WalMart), was a military intelligence officer; Coach Lou Holtz and Lieutenant General (Retired) Marc Cisneros (CEO, John G. & Marie Stella Kennedy Memorial Foundation), artillery officers; Earl Graves (CEO and Publisher, Black Enterprise Magazine), a special forces officer; and Secretary of State Colin Powell, an infantry officer – all Army ROTC alumni.

To provide you an incentive, Army ROTC awards scholarships to qualified students enrolling in a variety of academic disciplines – scholarships that pay full tuition at most schools, plus book and mandatory fees and a monthly stipend of spending money directly to the student. We select the very best candidates for scholarships, and a correctly completed application is one of the most important parts of the selection process. Be sure to put your very best effort into your application. Competition is too keen to submit anything less than your best. Every item of information on your application reveals something about you.

Think of this application as your resume – a gateway to thousands of dollars in scholarship support for your college education and a giant step towards success in any future career. I wish you the best in your pursuit of a U.S. Army ROTC scholarship and hope to see your name on future enrollment rolls for Army ROTC.

Sincerely,

W. Montague Winfield

THE U.S. ARMY ROTC 4-YEAR COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP

The U.S. Army ROTC Program

Army ROTC is the best leadership course in America and we're looking for scholars, athletes and leaders to become future Army officers. The program is based on college electives and activities that you take right along with your other classes. But ROTC is like no other class you'll take!

In Army ROTC, you develop your leadership abilities. There are activities such as rappelling and survival training to help increase your self-confidence and discipline. Your studies may include time management, communications, and small-group decision-making. Ultimately, you'll learn about the Army and what it takes to become an officer.

When you're finished, you'll have earned your degree and the impressive leadership credentials of an Army officer, as well as opportunities for rewarding service.

The U.S. Army ROTC 4-Year Scholarship

To attract the best and brightest high school and college students, Army ROTC offers merit-based scholarships for use at any of our nearly 300 host colleges and universities, or through partnership agreements with over a thousand other schools.

Army ROTC scholarships cover tuition and fees OR room and board, and they provide an allotment to pay for books as well as a monthly stipend of spending money that increases each year. (Stipends are paid for each academic month that the scholarship is in effect, for up to ten months each year.) Army ROTC scholarships do not pay flight fees.

The 4-Year Scholarship application is contained in this booklet and allows you to select up to seven schools where you would like to use the scholarship. Once you are offered a scholarship, you must choose from five of your school choices at which school you wish to utilize the scholarship. For information on 3- and 2-year scholarships, see the

Professor of Military Science (PMS) on campus at the school you are attending. Remember – if you're not selected to receive a 4-year scholarship at this time, you could be eligible for a scholarship when you get on campus! Our scholarships pay full college tuition and educational fees, OR room and board (capped at $10k), whichever is chosen by the student. Many schools provide additional incentives for scholarship winners, which may include academic credit for ROTC classes, etc. Many of these incentives are listed by school at www.goarmy.com/rotc. The 4-Year Scholarship allows qualified and competitive students to arrive on campus with far fewer financial concerns than most students face, and provides a ready avenue of academic and extracurricular support through the Department of Military Science.

The benefits of an Army ROTC scholarship go far beyond financial. By taking Army ROTC, students develop skills that will help them better survive the rigors of college life, and prepare them for future success both in their initial military service and beyond into civilian positions.

General Eligibility Requirements

To be eligible for the Army ROTC 4-Year College Scholarship, you must meet the following general eligibility requirements:

You must be a U.S. citizen or U.S. National (persons born in American Samoa and Swains Island).

You must be at least 17 years of age within the 1st semester of the year you enter college.

You must be under 31 years of age by December 31st of the year in which you will graduate from college and receive your commission (cannot be waived).

You must be a high school graduate or possess an equivalent certificate before September of the year you will enter college. The 4-Year Scholarship is designed for entering freshmen, but if you are taking or have taken college courses you may still be eligible if you have four academic years remaining for a bachelors degree upon your enrollment in the fall. If you are in an accelerated program and will complete your senior year of high school and first year of college concurrently, you must have four academic years remaining in an approved program upon enrollment in the fall. Be sure to include all pertinent information in reference to any college credits you may already possess.

You must have a minimum cumulative high school grade point average (GPA) of 2.5. In order for your file to go to the scholarship selection board, we must have a transcript validating this score.

You must receive a minimum SAT score of 920 or an ACT composite score of 19. In order for your file to go to the scholarship selection board, we must have proof that this is a valid score (i.e. testing agency electronic file or you provide paper copy) See page 5.

You must have no moral obligation or personal conviction that will prevent you from:

- supporting and defending the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic, or
- conscientiously bearing arms.

You must also satisfactorily explain any record of arrest and/or civil conviction.

All scholarship applicants' physical ability must be assessed. We will request you to have your guidance counselor arrange for you to take The President's Challenge Physical Fitness Test. The required information will be sent directly to you. For your convenience, there is The President's Challenge Physical Fitness Scorecard and instructions concerning the events on pages 19-23. We only require you to test on the sit-ups (curl-ups), push-ups, and the 1-mile endurance run.

Obligations

If you are selected for a U.S. Army ROTC scholarship, you are required to sign a contract with the Secretary of the Army. If you are not yet 18 years of age when you enroll, your parents or guardians must also sign the contract.

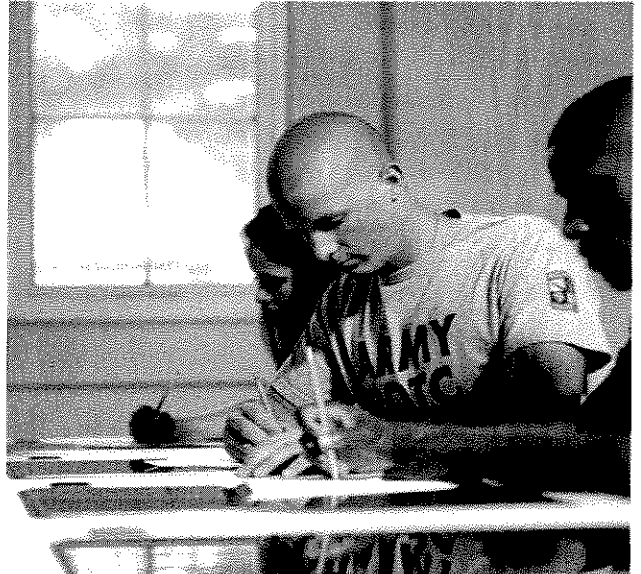

Scholarship cadets must pursue an approved academic discipline. Within your scholarship application, you must select an intended major from the list of approved disciplines enclosed. This selection will not prevent you from changing majors later, but you must work with your PMS to do so. Any change of major that results in a requirement for additional coursework and a potential request for an extension of scholarship benefits must be approved by ROTC.

In your ROTC program, you will be required to take Military Science classes each academic term, and will attend a paid four-week camp between your third and fourth year (normally the summer before your senior year).

As a 4-year scholarship winner, you will be commissioned as a second lieutenant upon your graduation, with a commitment to serve on active duty for a minimum of four years. Selected cadets may choose to serve in the U.S. Army Reserve or Army National Guard; see the PMS for information on these options.

Scholarship Selection Criteria

All factors are important and are considered in the selection of scholarship winners. Selection of scholarship finalists is based on:

- SAT or ACT scores. If you take both tests, or take them more than once, please furnish all results; your best score(s) will be used.
- High school academic standing. Your class size and rank within the class are required. If your school does not rank students, they must provide at least an estimate of where you would fall (e.g., "this student would fall within the top 20%").
- High school Transcripts. A transcript of grades is required in reviewing this scholarship application. Please complete the Personal Data Section on the Request For Transcript (CC Form 168-R) located at the end of the application in this booklet and give it to your Guidance Counselor to complete. Additionally, have your Guidance Counselor send a copy of your high school transcript along with the completed CC Form 168-R to the address listed on page 1. Be sure your name and SSN are visible on this transcript.
- Evidence of your extracurricular participation, athletic activities, and leadership positions held. If you have held part-time jobs during the school year and have not had time for extensive participation in sports or other activities, you will be given credit based on the number of hours you worked per week.

- Personal interview(s). If you are selected as a scholarship finalist, you must contact one of the schools listed in your notification letter (or any school of your choice) where you wish to have the interview conducted. The notification letter requires that you respond back to the Scholarship Branch identifying where you wish to have your interview conducted. Any travel to and from the interview will be at your own expense.

Cadets and Officers

Army ROTC cadets are scholars, athletes and leaders. Our scholarship winners are well-rounded students with good grades and strong potential to serve in leadership positions. More than half of them have held office in either one of their classes or in the student body. Most are National Honor Society members, and a few are editors of school publications. Many are members of school, church, or private clubs and other organizations, and others are varsity letter winners and varsity team captains.

Army ROTC is looking for achievers with broad interests, leadership ability, and a demonstrated willingness to take on and overcome challenges.

We also look for academic excellence. Most of our scholarship awardees fall in the top 25% of their class. These top achievers score on an average, between 1050 and 1350 on their SAT and between 22 and 30 on their ACT.

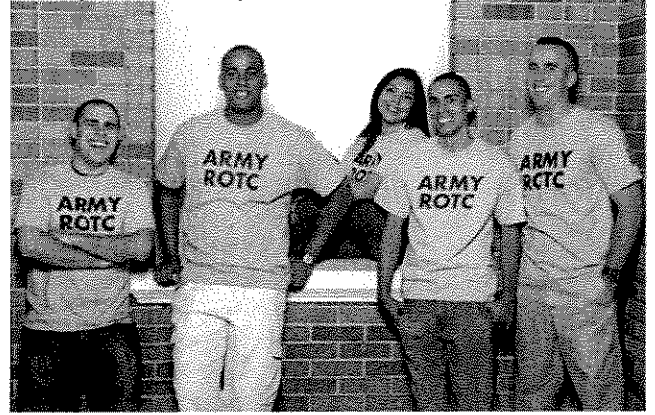

The pursuit of excellence continues with cadets on campus. Army ROTC cadets are encouraged to participate in a variety of campus activities, including competitive varsity sports and student organizations. The Army benefits most by commissioning officers with a variety of backgrounds and a diversity of experiences.

An Army ROTC battalion (the group of all cadets enrolled in the program at a particular school) is a group of students from many backgrounds, some who have been selected as scholarship winners and many who are just taking the courses to best prepare for the future.

In addition to the required five-week camp, cadets may choose to participate in a wide variety of Army-sponsored leadership development programs during the summer, including skills training programs like Airborne School and internships with Army agencies, in disciplines from ecology to medicine.

In their final year, cadets compete for their choice of branch assignment based on their order of merit – a score which encompasses their academic standing, battalion ranking, and performance at camp. There are seventeen Army branches to select from, including Infantry, Military Police, Chemical Corps, Transportation Corps and Air Defense Artillery, to name a few. Talk to the PMS and the cadets at each campus you visit – ask the cadets about their Army ROTC experience and ask the cadre about their experience as junior officers. You'll find that you're in good company with this group and that Army ROTC is truly one of the best leadership development programs in the world.

Special Scholarship Programs

Nursing

Army ROTC is an elective taken while studying for your nursing degree, and it provides a foundation for achievement, including leadership and management skills critical to success in the profession. Army ROTC provides outstanding clinical opportunities in the form of the Nurse Summer Training Program (NSTP). NSTP introduces cadets to the roles, responsibilities and expectations of an ANC officer, and provides progressive experience and leadership opportunities in a clinical setting, working side by side with an ANC officer in a medical treatment facility.

Upon graduation and successful completion of the Registered Nurse licensure exam, you begin your professional career. As an ANC officer, you have competitive promotion opportunities, challenging leadership positions and advanced educational options immediately upon arriving at your first assignment. These training programs prepare you for practice in a chosen specialty area.

Army ROTC has an excellent 2-, 3-, and 4-year nursing scholarship program available to students pursuing a nursing degree, for use at accredited Bachelor of Science/Arts in Nursing schools and colleges.

To apply for a nurse scholarship, indicate JXX in block 34, Major Subject, on page 3 of the application. Select schools for block 35, School of Intent, from the schools coded "N" on the enclosed list of Army ROTC Colleges and Universities.

Historically Black Colleges & Universities (HBCU)

To further develop the diversity of the officer corps, Army ROTC reserves a limited number of scholarships for those students who desire to attend an HBCU. To apply, note your interest in block 22 on page 2 of the application and choose schools annotated as "H" in the enclosed list of schools.

Preparation and Scholarship Processing

All applicants must meet the general eligibility requirements outlined on pages 2 and 3 in order to receive further scholarship consideration. This includes taking the SAT or ACT, as outlined below.

Unfortunately, not all applicants can be selected as finalists. Those applicants advancing to further scholarship consideration are scheduled for a personal interview and a medical exam, which are also described below.

SAT & ACT

When taking your college entrance exams, you should list Army ROTC as a test score recipient. The Army ROTC code for SAT is 0454; the code for ACT is 1676. You should also list as recipients those schools at which you are planning to apply; the schools you are listing in this application. You may not be required to list your social security number (SSN) on the college entrance exams, however, it is recommended that you do so for proper posting of your scores.

Experience has shown that many applicants have been disqualified because they failed to allow sufficient time for processing test results. SAT and ACT test results require approximately four weeks to process; do not wait for test results to mail your application forms!

March 2 Success is a free, no obligation tool that provides educational content to help anyone improve their knowledge and test scores in the areas of Language, Arts, Mathematics and Science. It provides material to help improve scores on standardized tests such as SAT, ACT, state exit exams and ASVAB. Visit that site @ <https://march2success.com/index.cfm>

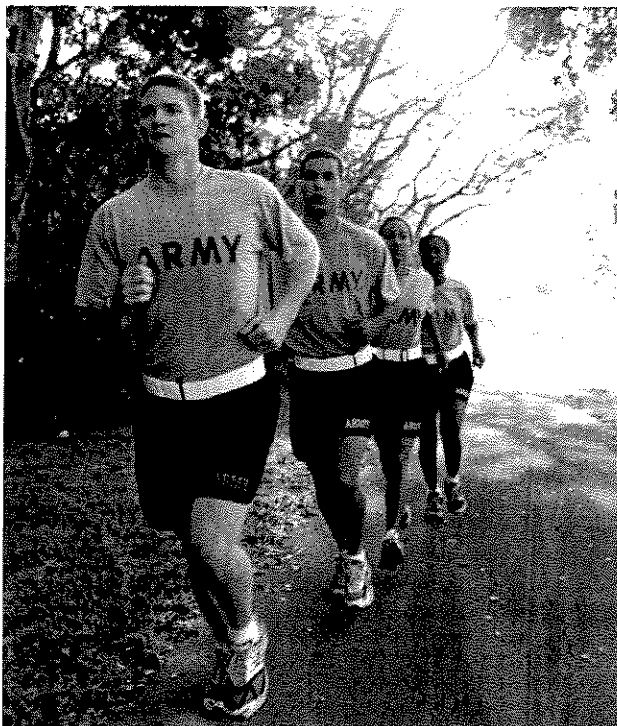

By listing Army ROTC as a test score recipient, your scores will automatically be furnished to our office. Test scores provided in this manner require no further verification. Also, test scores reflected on official transcripts require no further verification either. In order to accept scores provided from any other source, you must personally submit those scores to the address on page 1.

SAT and ACT Writing tests are required; however are used subjectively for the board at this time. No whole person score is associated with the writing tests.

Contact your guidance counselor to determine test dates and registration dates and requirements. The Army cannot schedule or administer these tests, nor can we initiate a request for scores. If you are living in an overseas area, you may require additional processing time and assistance. We have provided the agency addresses below for your convenience.

Medical Examination

Your medical condition is not a consideration in the selection of scholarship winners; however, all winners must be medically qualified in order to enroll as scholarship cadets and receive benefits.

Individuals selected as scholarship finalists will be contacted and scheduled for a medical examination by the Department of Defense Medical Examination Review Board (DODMERB). DODMERB will normally contact students via letter or postcard announcing an appointment date and time or requesting that you contact a contracted physician to make an appointment. If you are unable to report to the examination as scheduled, you must notify DODMERB immediately to be rescheduled. You are responsible for your own transportation, lodging and meals related to this examination.

If you do not receive appointment information within six weeks after being notified that your application has been provided to your school choices, contact DODMERB at 1-800-841-2706.

As part of your medical evaluation, you must weigh less than the maximum allowable weight for your height. See page 18 for the allowable weight for scholarship recipients.

Results of the medical examination will be furnished directly to you by DODMERB as well as to Army ROTC. Upon receipt of your results, you may want to contact us at the address on page 1, or e-mail us at atceps@usacc.army.mil, to ensure that we have received a copy. You must comply as quickly as possible with any requirements to provide additional medical documents or to schedule a consultation in a particular area, in order to avoid delays in the scholarship processing.

GOOD LUCK!

<sup>2</sup>Although you may qualify for a scholarship if you are within the maximum weight for Army ROTC, every effort should be made to stay within the weights established for active duty. Active duty weight requirements are more stringent than those required of Army ROTC cadets. Failure to meet and remain within these parameters may result in the loss of a scholarship if offered. ## The President's Challenge Physical Fitness Test Events

Curl-ups (or partial curl-ups) (Sit-Ups)

This event measures abdominal strength and endurance.

Curl-ups test

Have student lie on cushioned, clean surface with knees flexed and feet about 12 inches from buttocks. Partner holds feet. Arms are crossed with hands placed on opposite shoulders and elbows held close to chest. Keeping this arm position, student raises the trunk curling up to touch elbows to thighs and then lowers the back to the floor so that the scapulas (shoulder blades) touch the floor, for one curl-up. To start, a timer calls out the signal "Ready? Go!" and begins timing student for one minute. The student stops on the word "stop."

Curl-ups tip

Instruct helpers to count aloud the number of repetitions.

Curl-ups scoring

"Bouncing" off the floor is not permitted. The curl-up should be counted only if performed correctly.

Partial curl-ups test

Have student lie on cushioned, clean surface with knees flexed and feet about 12 inches from buttocks. Do not hold or anchor the feet. Arms are extended forward with fingers resting on the legs and pointing toward the knees. The student's partner is behind the head with hands cupped under the student's head. The student being tested curls up slowly sliding the fingers up the legs until the fingertips touch the knees, then back down until the head touches the partner's hands. The curl-ups are done to a metronome (or audio tape, clapping, drums) with one complete curl-up every three seconds, and are continued until the student can do no more in rhythm (has not done the last three in rhythm) or has reached the target number for the test.

Partial curl-ups tip

Make sure that the participant's arm is fully extended from the starting position.

Partial curl-ups scoring

Record only those curl-ups done with proper form and in rhythm.

Partial curl-ups rationale

Done slowly with knees bent and feet not held, the partial curl-up is a better indicator of abdominal strength and endurance than the timed curl-ups.

The President's Challenge Physical Fitness Test Events

Pull-ups (or right angle push-ups or flexed-arm hang) (Push-Ups)

This event measures upper body strength and endurance.

Pull-ups testing

Student hangs from a horizontal bar at a height the student can hang from with arms fully extended and feet free from floor, using either an overhand grasp (palms facing away from body) or underhand grip (palms facing toward body). Small students may be lifted to starting position. Student raises body until chin clears the bar and then lowers body to full-hang starting position. Student performs as many correct pull-ups as possible.

Pull-ups tip

Spend as little time hanging from the bar beforehand as possible, the extra time on the bar may reduce the number of pull-ups performed. Discourage any kicking of the legs or swinging of the body as this may also decrease the number of repetitions.

Pull-ups scoring

Pull-ups should be done in a smooth rather than jerky motion. Kicking or bending the legs is not permitted and the body must not swing during the movement.

Right angle push-ups testing

The student lies face down on the mat in push-up position with hands under shoulders, fingers straight, and legs straight, parallel, and slightly apart, with the toes supporting the feet. The student straightens the arms, keeping the back and knees straight, then lowers the body until there is a 90-degree angle at the elbows, with the upper arms parallel to the floor. A partner holds her / his hand at the point of the 90-degree angle so that the student being tested goes down only until her / his shoulder touches the partner's hand, then back up. The push-ups are done to a metronome (or audio tape, clapping, drums) with one complete push-up every three seconds, and are continued until the student can do no more in rhythm (has not done the last three in rhythm) or has reached the target number for the PPFA.

Right angle push-ups tip

As with the pull-up, spend as little time in the starting position beforehand in order to increase the number of repetitions. Any extra movement may also decrease the number of repetitions.

Right angle push-ups scoring

Record only those push-ups done with proper form and in rhythm.

Right angle push-ups rationale

The student's body weight has less effect on right angle push-ups than it does on pull-ups. This makes right angle push-ups a better indicator of the range of strength and endurance found in students, whereas many are unable to do any pull-ups. Pull-ups remain an option for students at higher levels of strength and endurance.

Flexed-arm hang testing

Using either an overhand grasp (palms facing away from body) or underhand grip (palms facing toward body), student assumes flexed-arm hang position with chin clearing the bar. Students may be lifted to this position. Student holds this position as long as possible.

The President's Challenge Physical Fitness Test Events

Flexed-arm hang tip

Rather than doing a pull-up to start, lift the participant to the starting position. This decreases any extra exertion and may possibly increase the length of time.

Flexed-arm hang scoring

Chest should be held close to bar with legs hanging straight. Timing is stopped when student's chin touches or falls below the bar.

Endurance run/walk (1-Mile Run)

This event measures heart/lung endurance.

Endurance run/walk testing

On a safe, one-mile distance, students begin running on the count "Ready? Go!" Walking may be interspersed with running. However, the students should be encouraged to cover the distance in as short a time as possible.

Endurance run/walk tip

Use a large enough running area so that no more than eight laps are necessary to complete a mile. Help participants learn proper pacing for the mile by having them run at the mile pace for short distances during warm-up time.

If you are not using a track that is measured in miles, then you will need to convert from that measurement into miles. Refer to the conversion chart below for converting to miles when using a 400 meter track or 440 yards.

Endurance run/walk scoring

Always review students' health status before administering this test. Give students ample instruction on how to pace themselves. Allow them to practice running this distance against time, as well as sufficient time for warming up and cooling down before and after the test. Times are recorded in minutes and seconds.

Alternative distances for younger children are 1/4 mile for 6-7 years old, and 1/2 mile for 8-9 years old. The same objective and testing procedure are used as with the mile run.

Conversion for Miles
On a 400 meter track	On a 440 yard track
1 mile = 4 laps + 9 meters	1 mile = 4 laps
3/4 mile = 3 laps + 6.75 meters	3/4 mile = 3 laps
1/2 mile = 2 laps + 4.5 meters	1/2 mile = 2 laps
1/4 mile = 1 lap + 2.25 meters	1/4 mile = 1 lap
