Campus Address __________________________________________________________________

Position Title ____________________________________________________________________

Department ______________________________________________________________________

The purpose of this award is to recognize outstanding efforts to create a climate that encourages women to succeed at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. These efforts may be by an individual or by an organization or department within the institution. The award recipient must demonstrate a sustained and tangible impact on the campus community. Such efforts might include, for example:

- A record of recruitment resulting in the appointment of women.
- A program that recruits more female students than is typical for that program.
- An individual or unit that provides a special service to female students and helps retain these students.
- An academic department that promotes the professional advancement of women faculty members and encourages and supports the recognition of service responsibilities beyond that normally expected.
- A project that results in more women students entering graduate school in a special discipline.
- A project that promotes greater awareness of women’s issues within the University context.
- A project in the public schools that encourages or enables more women to enter this University.

Nomination Packet

Students, staff and faculty are invited to make nominations. In a letter of nomination, please describe your nominee’s accomplishments and activities related to creating a climate at UNL that encourages women’s success. Be specific in your comments, documenting concrete actions and attitudes that illustrate the nominee’s commitment to an equitable campus environment. Your nomination should also include the following:

a. This nomination form.
b. No more than three letters of support.
c. Additional supporting documentation may be included (but is not required). Please do not exceed three pages.

Please attach all supporting documentation to this nomination form and submit to: Jody Wood, 128 ADMN, CC 0437 or via email to jwood2@unl.edu, no later than February 23, 2018.
