

Marion County, Kansas - 15 June (Cervna) 1895

MARION COUNTY

Marion County lies almost in the middle of the state, more or less east. It has 20,193 inhabitants. The county seat is Marion. Topography is largely rolling until in the east part of the county where a proportionate area is vast. Soil for the most part is fertile throughout. In the county here, we find for a big part, land used for cattle breeding. Scull, here the majority of the land is used for renting. In the north part here in the county, cutting by the comrades is his possession. We find the Czech settler here in the west near Lincolnville. Mr. Jakub Rudolf is the first Czech settler. The Czechs throughout, rival the Catholics, owning their own church and the priest brings rules (perhaps referring to mass) to them frequently by horse-back from the town of Hanover, Kansas.
