Okres Custer, v Nebrasce.

Severovýchodní roh okresu
Custer, v Neb.

CUSTER COUNTY, NEBRASKA

(It) lies in almost the middle of the state. Population reads 21,647. The town of Broken Bow is the county seat. The landscape is rolling in much part, big, almost rough mountains. Soil for western part of the county is enough fertility. Water is drinkable in most part and it is great depth of 800 feet. The Bohemian settler chiefly lives near the border of Valley County. Several other settlers are also scattered in another part of the county.

Furthermore, the following live in the county, but know nothing and can't find out by searching, not even by word of mouth or writing - they are silent.

They are:

Jan Vanek, Ortello P.O. from Lutove Trebon Budejovice
Vinc. Stedry, Broken Bow

These have land in the county but do not live here.
