FILLMORE COUNTY, NEBRASKA

(It) lies mostly in the middle of the state toward the south. It has 15,969 inhabitants. The town of Geneva is the county seat. The topography is small rolling prairie, the land productive. The Czechs are settled mostly toward the border of Saline County. The first Czech settler was Frant. Ziska who moved from Braidwood, Illinois, formerly from Europe, and intine founded the Czech settlement. After a few years, the town of Milligan was founded. Here was built the National Hall by Lodge Rabi C.S.P.S. The Lodge Rabi had 50 members and assets of $500. The Catholic countrymen built a beautiful Cathedral where they gathered for their religious services and to exchange current events. In town, a school was founded complete with writing Czech, the mother tongue. It was administered by everyone (lodge members) who took their turn.
