HOWARD COUNTY, NEBRASKA

(Howard County) lies in the western middle of the state. It has 9,421 inhabitants. St. Paul is the county seat. The land in the south east part of the county is level and also in the north it is level and productive; along the Loup River are wide valleys, though sandy. The soil is good for the most part. Czechs are scattered over the county, but most are found in the southeastern part of the county. In St. Paul, there is a Czech Catholic Church, under the administration of Father Vlcek. Outside of the Czech Lodges, there are no other churches.
