SEWARD COUNTY, NEBRASKA

(It) lies southeast toward the middle of the state. It has 16,099 inhabitants. The county seat is Seward. The precincts are known by the alphabet as A,B,C, etc. The topography is gently rolling but to the north more level. Soil on the whole is fertile. Czechs are settled mostly to the northeast near Saline County. One Jas. J. Tous settled in the southwest corner, in the town of Cordova on the F.E. and M.V. Railroad.
