VALLEY COUNTY, NEBRASKA

(It) lies in the middle of the state. It has 7075 inhabitants. The town of Ord is the county seat. The topography is mostly rolling prairie, between the hills are broad valleys. The soil in the valleys is very fertile. Water level in the northwest part of the county is very deep. The Czechs settled for the most part in the northwest part of the county, and a good living is made with the fertile soil in Geranium Valley and other valleys. They make up one-third of the people in the county. The Czech settlers in the town of Ord banded together and formed the first Lodge Dennice C.S.P.S. A Czech church for Roman Catholic Christians has been built in the rural Ord area in the center of the Czech settlement. A special mention of the past is the Czech Bible of Old Prague by Jindrich Melantrich of Aventyn, printed in the year 1570. This is the third printing of the Bible in the Czech language printed in Czechoslovakia. I know that Jindrich Melantrich was originally listed under the name Drozdalovsky of Aventyn, and evidence (proof) is that this Bible isn't a Bible of the Kings, as Kings' Bibles were not allowed to be printed without the permission of J.C.M. King Matyas. The Bible mentioned is the property of Mr. Stara, Sr.
