- People who conduct investigations with skill rest secure in the knowledge that all involved, including witnesses, are treated objectively and fairly.
- Provide ample opportunity for interviewee – especially the Complainant and the Respondent – to ask questions.
- Be sure Complainant and Respondent understand parameters of the policy, what it does and does not cover, how the process may play out, and what the process can and cannot accomplish through outcomes.

• "No reasonable person could make a finding of responsible"

Clear and Convincing
• Very sufficient evidence

No Evidence
• Non-case
• False Claim

Preponderance of the Evidence
• More likely than not
• 50% plus a feather

Beyond a Reasonable Doubt
• Overwhelming Evidence

- Understand each party's perception
  - Incident(s), relationships, and the process
- Gather enough information to determine facts and their relative importance and relevance
- Try to learn what is more likely than not to have happened
- Use questions to elicit details, eliminate vagueness, and fill gaps where information is missing
