By completing this application, I understand the program criteria outlined below. I will:

- major in an approved humanities or social sciences degree, declare pre-medicine as my intended professional program with the Explore Center, and remain so until I graduate, or request to leave the Scholars’ Program. Approved humanities and social sciences majors: Anthropology, Art, Art History, Classical Languages, Classics and Religious Studies, Communication Studies, English, Environmental Studies, Ethnic Studies, Film Studies, French, Geography, German, Great Plains Studies, History, Global Studies, Latin American Studies, Medieval and Renaissance Studies, Music, Philosophy, Political Science, Psychology, Russian, Sociology, Spanish, and Women’s & Gender Studies;
- participate in at least one Humanities in Medicine lecture or event per year;
- participate in at least one documented professional shadowing or volunteer experience each year;
- complete three courses (9 credit hours), one of which must be from the list of core courses. The remaining courses may be chosen from the lists of core and elective courses, with at least one course at the 300- or 400-level. Different courses may be substituted with the permission of the Faculty Coordinator. Such courses must fulfill the spirit of the Humanities in Medicine Program.

I agree to participate in the Program as described above:
