Byzantium is the name given to the Eastern Roman Empire in the Middle Ages, which lasted from A.D. 330 to 1453. This course will explore key dimensions of its political, economic, social developments, and the material remains of its capital city, Constantinople, contemporary Istanbul.