*Project funded in part by
"Humanities Nebraska"*

Please join the Nebraska Writing Project in a poetry event that reflects life in Nebraska. The purpose of this program is to encourage Nebraska students to write poetry about place and to make that poetry more visible.

THE PROCESS

All Nebraska students, grades one through twelve, are encouraged to submit an original poem to their teacher that is reflective of that student's 'place'.

Teachers will forward up to 12 poems per school (4 each from three grade divisions, 1-5, 6-8, 9-12) to the Nebraska Writing Project (NeWP) at the University of Nebraska, Lincoln.

Nebraska poets Twyla Hansen and Matt Mason will read the poems and, based on quality and their representation of Nebraska place in rural, urban, and suburban settings, choose 9 to 12 poems statewide, to be published on the Nebraska Writing Project website. Also, selected student poets will be invited to read their work at various venues around Nebraska, as well as the Poetry of Place Celebration on May 6th, 2022 in the Rotunda at the State Capitol in Lincoln, alongside Twyla Hansen and Matt Mason.
