UNL Plant Science Retreat

The Plant Science Retreat is a biennial event for members of the University of Nebraska Plant Science Community, giving them a forum to hear and discuss the latest in Plant Science research. This retreat is sponsored by the Center for Plant Science Innovation, with funding from UNL departments and additional sources.

Keynote Speakers

Dr. Nirav Merchant
Director
University of Arizona
Data Science Institute

Dr. Hasan Otu
Professor
University of Nebraska-Lincoln

Dr. Eric Deeds
Associate Professor
University of Kansas

October 12-13, 2018  |  Lied Lodge & Conference Center
Nebraska City, NE

Important Dates

September 7, 2018
Registration Deadline

September 21, 2018
Registration cancellation deadline (w/o penalty*)

September 24, 2018
Presentation selections made

*Registration cancellations received after September 21, 2018 and all no-shows will have expenses charged to the lab PI.

Double occupancy lodging and meal expenses are covered. Requests for a single occupancy room must provide a cost center to charge the additional expense.

Visit www.unl.edu/psi/ to register and for more information