Women's and Gender Studies

School's Out: Gay and Lesbian Teachers in the Classroom

Dr. Cati Connell
Assistant Professor of Sociology, Boston University

Friday, October 2, 2015
12:30 PM, Nebraska Union,
Georgian Suite

School's Out: Gay and Lesbian Teachers in the Classroom considers the experiences of gay and lesbian identified teachers in California and Texas. In the book, Connell asks: how do gay and lesbian teachers grapple with their professional and sexual identities at work, given that they are constructed as mutually exclusive, even indeed as mutually opposed? The book explores the tension between the rhetoric of gay pride and the professional ethic of discretion in the context of other complicating factors, from local law and politics to race and gender privilege.

University of Nebraska Lincoln

Women's & Gender Studies
(402) 472-9392
327 Seaton Hall
http://www.unl.edu/wgs

This event is co-sponsored by the Department of Sociology and the UNL Faculty Senate Convocations Committee.

The University of Nebraska–Lincoln does not discriminate based on gender, age, disability, race, color, religion, marital status, veteran's status, national or ethnic origin, or sexual orientation.