

History 430: Early European History through Biography.

MWF 9:30-10:20am Burnett 118

Examines how history can be used to serve social, cultural, and political needs, and the difficulties of determining historic truth about a person or event. Focuses on individuals from late medieval/early modern Europe, such as Joan of Arc, Henry V, and Eleanor of Aquitaine and will include analysis of gender.