Patton will discuss the treatment of the ancestor figure in African American women’s writing, investigating how they draw on African cosmology and the interrelationship of ancestors, elders, and children to promote healing within the African American community.

Tuesday, March 18, 2014
3:30 pm, Bailey Library
Andrews Hall Room 229

This is the 3rd event of our Spring 2014 Colloquium Series

This talk is sponsored by UNL’s department of English, with co-sponsorship by UNL’s Women’s and Gender Studies program, Institute for Ethnic Studies, and African American and African Studies program.