WHT Event Requirement

Scholars are responsible for keeping track of their own event attendance (including how many of each type of event they have attended)

In order to receive credit for an event, Scholars must:
• Attend the event on time (if they are more than 10 minutes late they cannot count it for event credit)
• Sign-in at the event on the official WHT sign-in sheet
• Get the event evaluation password at the event
• Login to Blackboard (within 1 week of the event) and complete the event evaluation
After logging in and clicking on the link to your WHT cohort page, you must access the event evaluations by clicking on the red “Program Evaluations” tab on the left side of your Blackboard screen.
You can then click on the Event evaluations folder for the current semester to open the evaluations for specific events.
Event evaluations will only be active (visible) for ONE WEEK after the event! Please remember this rule so that you can complete your evaluations on time (if you fail to do so, you will have to attend a different event!)

You will receive the passwords you need to enter to access event evaluations at the actual event. Remember to always get the password from a WHT staff member when you attend an event!
2 Types of Event Evaluations:

You will either need to complete a survey-style event evaluation or an essay-style event evaluation! When you click on an event in the Program Evaluations folder to complete your evaluation you will see the following prompt if you need to complete an essay evaluation (otherwise, the evaluation will always be a survey):

Please submit a two-paragraph reflection essay that discusses your experiences at the event listed above. You may wish to write about what you experienced at the event, anything you learned, and what you thought of the topics/activities covered at the event. For week-long programs that offer a number of events (ex: Eating Disorder Awareness Week) you are welcome to attend as many of these events as you would like, but you will only be allowed to count one of the events towards your W.H. Thompson event credit.

You will have exactly one week from the date of the event to submit this reflection on Blackboard (for week-long program events, you will have one week from the day of the last event in the week-long program).

You may submit your reflection as either an attachment or type it directly into the Blackboard evaluation submission box.
