Welcome all, both current and prospective members, to the 2005-2006 school year and the UNL Faculty Women’s Club Fall Newsletter. As I write this, it is July and I feel that the summer is just beginning, but plans are well underway to make next year an exciting one for faculty women.

First, I want to reflect on last year for a moment. I’m happy to report that we awarded a total of $4,500 in scholarships for 2005-2006 to three students. These individuals are excellent students, active in campus affairs, and have a high degree of need. Jozie Sheffield checked into our scholarship history and discovered that since 1987, the Faculty Women’s Club has awarded more than $55,000 in scholarships to UNL students. Congratulations to all of us for doing our part!

Now, I’ll look forward to next year. We will kick off the year with the Welcome Tea on Wednesday, September 7. This informal get-together is the chance to meet new and continuing members and look at information about the Interest Groups, Tours, and other events.

The highlight of the fall is going to be the Fall Brunch when UNL’s own U.S. Poet Laureate and Pulitzer Prize winner, Ted Kooser, will speak.

I invite you to browse this newsletter for more information on the Fall Brunch, our many Interest Groups, and other events. Then come to the Welcome Tea to say “hello” and sign up for the activities that interest you.

Best Regards,
Chris Zygielbaum,
UNL FWC President
You’re Invited to the Welcome Tea

PICASSO

Joslyn Art Museum
October 12, 2005

Did you think Pablo Picasso was only a painter and sculptor? Actually, he was also one of the greatest printmakers of his time!

Join us for a day tour of priceless Picasso prints and paintings offered in a special exhibit at the Joslyn Art Museum. This show includes 80 of Picasso’s prints and a selection of his paintings. Also featured is a special exhibit of John James Audubon’s Four Legged Mammals of North America. Eighty Audubon prints recently acquired by Joslyn will be displayed. You may choose to tour on your own or join a group tour with a presentation given to us by docents.

The outing is scheduled for Wednesday, October 12th, 8:45 AM. Spouses and guests are welcome. Seating is limited to 49 so make your reservations early. We will board the bus at 8:45 AM at Westfield Shopping Center in the NORTH parking lot between CIRCUIT CITY and JC PENNEY’S. The bus will depart at 9:00 AM, and return to Lincoln at approximately 2:30 PM.

The cost is $20, which includes the cost of the bus ride, and the entrance fee. Lunch is on our own with reserved seating for our group in Café Durham, located in Joslyn’s lovely glass atrium of the new Pavilion. The deadline for reservations is September 21st.
