Dear Faculty Women’s Club,

Welcome newcomers and current members to the Faculty Women’s Club (FWC) for 2008-2009. Leveraging our creativity and hard work, we had a great year in 2007-2008 with excellent programs, fun social events and awarding scholarships to seven deserving University of Nebraska students.

The very positive responses we receive from the students demonstrate how important these scholarships are to help the students continue their higher education. We provide service to the University including funding scholarships but we manage to have lots of fun along the way! I have really enjoyed getting to know each and every one of you during the years I’ve served on the Board and I appreciate the individual contributions each of you has made to the organization.

A new function near the end of last year was a dinner and dance for FWC members and their guests. It featured great food, music and dancing. In fact, the coming year promises to be exciting with some wonderful events planned as well. We are looking forward to our first fall activity, the “Welcome Lunch” at the home of President J.B. Milliken and his wife, Nana Smith. This will be held on September 3, 2008 from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., so mark your calendars!

We hope you will join one or more interest groups, attend the tours, programs, and the Fall Brunch for the coming year. All of your ideas are important and welcome. This past year we had record-breaking financial contributions, particularly at the Spring Fashion Show Luncheon and I know this year we can set the bar even higher. We hope to continue to increase the FWC scholarship endowment fund with the Nebraska University Foundation. Interest income from this fund will be very important in future years to augment scholarship funds from annual fundraising projects.

I am happy to be serving as the FWC President for 2008-2009 and am looking forward to working with you in the upcoming activities.

Respectfully yours,

Margaret Vanderholm

The Fall Brunch, November 12, featuring ‘Broad Appeal’
Sounds of the Great Girl Groups, Songs of the Hit Parade– 1935 to 1959

If you yearn for the music of yesteryear, then tune in to Broad Appeal. Three women, each an accomplished performer and vocal instructor, capture the essence of the era through the glorious melodies of "Your Hit Parade," the popular show that brought the week's top songs to eager audiences gathered around their radios and televisions.

Broad Appeal is comprised of singers Julie Enersen, Anna Hanselmann and Laurie Lessman. They first performed together twenty years ago in UNL’s Scarlet and Cream Singers. In December 2001, they reunited at the Lied Center to portray the Andrews Sisters in ‘A Salute to Pearl Harbor’ and continue to sing together as Broad Appeal.

Broad Appeal, an ensemble which has been selected for the Nebraska Arts Council Touring Program, brings the hits and the stories behind them to life. They intermix a cappella arrangements and lively recorded band accompaniments in shows that can be adapted to run anywhere from 30 minutes to two hours.

With Hit Parade songs ranging from the obscure ‘Little Shoemaker’ to the wildly popular ‘Sincerely,’ Broad Appeal charms diverse audiences with their rich harmonies and seamless blend. www.broadappeal.net

Julie Enersen earned a degree in Music Education from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and has taught in the Lincoln Public and Central City schools. She is the Worship Arts Director at the Unitarian Church of Lincoln, a solo artist with the Nebraska Arts Council Touring program and a singer with The OK Chorale quartet.

Anna Hanselmann graduated in 1985 from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln with a Bachelor of Music in Vocal Performance. She held a four-year membership in the Scarlet and Cream Singers, was the director of Ogallala's long-running Front Street Review and is a private voice and piano teacher.

Laurie Lessman received her B.F.A in Musical Theatre from UNL. For the past 15 years she has been a private voice instructor. Currently, she is the Managing Director at the Lincoln Community Playhouse and is involved with music directing for the Family Theatre and Mainstage Series. Ms. Lessman has performed at the Lincoln Community Playhouse, Pinewood Bowl, Haymarket Theater and Nebraska Repertory Theater.
